BALL TEAM WINS RETURN ENCOUNTER

Buff and Blue Nine Regains Batting Eye To Defeat Larries, 13-10

DROPS TWO ON ROAD TRIP

Hillmen Suffer Batting Slump, Losing to Clarkson And St. Lawrence

While losing to both Clarkson and St. Lawrence on the trip over the week-end, the baseball team managed to keep its record of home games clean by defeating St. Lawrence in a return encounter on the Hill diamond Monday. The Buff and Blue failed to score a single run on the trip, losing, 6-0, at Potsdam, and 8-0 at Canton, but atoned for this lack of punch with a 13-10 victory in the second game of the series with St. Lawrence.

Inability to hit caused the downfall of the Buff and Blue at both Clarkson and St. Lawrence. In the game with Clarkson on Friday Eggleston accounted for the only hit of the game, poking out a single in the seventh inning. But four men reached first base, two advancing to second, only to be left stranded.

Eggleston Pitches Well

Eggleston handled the pitching assignment and turned in a creditable performance, allowing nine hits. He improved as the game progressed, but his teammates were unable to solve the delivery of Donald, Clarkson hurler, who fanned 13 men.

At St. Lawrence the squad was again unable to hit. Lawton got the only safety for the Buff and Blue, laying a bunt down the third base line and beating out the throw to first, and again 13 men were retired via the strike-out route.

Larries Win At Canton

Harvey pitched for the Buff and Blue and received rough treatment in the first two innings, being touched for six hits and allowing six runs to cross the plate. For the remainder of the game he held the St. Lawrence batters in check and allowed no more hits until the eighth inning when two safeties brought in the final two tallies of the game.

In the return game on the Hill Monday St. Lawrence got off to an early lead with one run in the second inning and six in the third. Rienzo started on the mound for Hamilton and was relieved in the third frame by Harvey, who again displayed his ability to check the Larries and was touched for only six hits for the remainder of the game, four coming in the last inning.

Hiler Hits Homer

The team found its batting eye at last in this encounter and made 15

HANCOCK CHOSEN FENCING CAPTAIN

Was Contender For Epee Honors In Intercollegiate Finals Last Year

At a meeting of the letter men of the fencing squad, held Saturday noon in the Soper gymnasium, Alfred V. Hancock '31 was elected to the captaincy of the sport for the year 1930-31.

Hancock fences with the epee and as the team's outstanding support in this branch of the game, has gained an enviable record.

Earning a position on the freshman team two years ago, he rapidly became sufficiently dexterous with his weapon to take part in the Intercollegiate Finals and make a letter his sophomore year. This past season, the newly-chosen captain lost an opportunity to duplicate his performance of the year preceeding by losing out in a fence-off during the semi-finals. Hancock is a member of the Chi Psi fraternity.

The annual Interclass Sing will be held this year on the evening of May 23rd. It has been arranged by the board of judges and the presidents of the four classes that each class will song "Shenandoah," a sea chantey, and any two Hamilton songs.

As soon as the classes have selected their college songs, rehearsals will be held during the noon hour. Copies of the sea chantey are being printed and will be distributed to the college.

The cup, which has been offered in competition by Professor and Mrs. Paul A. Fancher, has been won twice by the class of '31.

CRUSER CHOSEN EDITOR OF LIT

Carberry And Payne Added To Board — May Issue Out Monday

The latest issue of the Hamilton Literary Magazine on Monday marked the last under the present editorship. At a meeitng of Pi Delta Epsilon, held after chapel Monday morning, Vernon A. Ives, '30, outgoing editor of the Lit, nominated Robert W. Cruser, '31, as editor for next year. This nomination was later ratified by the Lit board, and at the same time Kenneth S. Carberry, '31, was elected to the board and Charles S. Payne, '32, was chosen art editor.

Mr. Cruser has been a member of the Lit board since the fall of 1928. Mr. Carberry, besides having had a story in a previous issue of the Lit, has two articles in the latest number, a sketch and an essay. Mr. Payne has drawn the frontispiece for the last two issues. He is the first undergraduate to have had art work published in the Lit since its re-establishment in 1928.

Five new writers, three of them freshmen, appear in the May number. Douw H. Fonda, Jr., '31, Robert Lamont and C. Lafayette Todd, '33, are represented by poetry. Wilmer E. Bresee, '31, has contributed a short piece entitled "Success." Herman F. Schilz, '33, is the author of an essay on the theater.

CONFERENCE MEET HERE SATURDAY

Track Team To Make Try for State Title Against Other Colleges

The coming Saturday finds the Hill acting as host to the annual New York State Conference Meet, when teams representing Alfred, Rochester, St. Lawrence, Hamilton, and possibly Clarkson, Hobart and Niagara will compete for the Conference title.

Alfred has won the title all three of the years that this meet has been held, while Hamilton has twice placed second. This year, however, for the first time the Buff and Blue stands an excellent chance to capture the title. By virtue of their wins over St. Lawrence and Rochester ,the latter of which was by a materially larger margin than was obtained by Alfred a week previously, the Hill men are conceded to hold the edge over their opponents.

It is in the track events, in which records in the 100 and 220-yard dashes and the 220-yard low hurdles are expected to be broken, that this edge is most apparent.

The feature events of the day will bring together Captain Ford of Hamilton and Percy of St. Lawrence in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Ford defeated Percy twice last

ROCHESTER SWAMPED BY TRACK TEAM

Hillmen Take Fourteen Out of Fifteen First Places

FORD BREAKS RECORD

Buff and Blue Make Clean Sweep in Pole Vault And Broad Jump

Capturing fourteen out of fifteen first places, the Buff and Blue track team far out distanced Rochester University on Saturday afternoon by a score of 107 2-3 to 23 1-3 in the first home meet of the season.

Captain Henry Ford provided the outstanding attraction of the afternoon by breaking the college record in the 220 yard low hurdles. His time was 25 seconds, but this will not be considered as official because a light wind was blowing in his favor at the time.

Jones Takes Shot Put

Contrary to the forecast, Hamilton proved far superior to Rochester in the field events, running up a total of 42 2-3 points against 11 1-3 for her opponents. The Continentals made clean sweeps in both the pole vault and the broad jump.

Every first place in the track events and most of the second places went to the Hillmen who captured all three places in the 220 yard dash.

Jones showed his best form of the season in the shot put, taking first place with a distance of 37 feet 6 1-2 inches.

Thatcher accounted for Rochester's lone first place by throwing the discus 100 feet 11 inches. He also took second in the shot put, and third in the javelin throw.

Hartman lost a sure second place in the low hurdles when he tripped and fell 15 yards from the finish.

Summary:

100 Yard Dash—Won by Ford, Hamilton; Corwin, Hamilton, second; McKennie, Rochester, third. Time 10 seconds.

Mile Run—Won by Campbell, Hamilton; Broughton, Hamilton, second; Swartz, Rochester, third; Time, four minutes, 51 1-10 seconds.

440 Yard Run—Denman and Aderhold, Hamilton, tied for first place; Morrisy, Rochester, third. Time, 52 6-10 seconds.

High Hurdles—Won by Fisher, Hamilton; Van Loon, Hamilton, second; Brayer, Rochester, third. Time 17 3-10 seconds.

NEW CLUB IS PROJECTED BY WAS LOS

Varsity Letter Association Planned To Better Fellowship

COLLEGE MEETING TODAY

Will Entertain Members Of Visiting Teams Here On Hill

Plans are being formulated by Was Los, junior honorary society, and the captains of the various sports for the creation of a Varsity "H" Club on the campus similar to varsity letter associations found in other colleges. A meeting will be held in chapel this morning for the presentation of the outline of the organization and its aims to the undergraduate body.

The new club has been conceived by Was Los for the purpose of bettering the relations between the Hill varsities and the members of visiting teams. At the present time, there is little opportunity for the players to actually come to know each other except in the heat of the contest. The new association would seek to bring the opposing players together after the games to promote good fellowship by means of dinners, dances, bridge games and various forms of entertainments.

To Foster Better Relations

Members of the club wil seek to observe how athletic affairs are handled at other institutions and make suggestions for the improvement of athletic relations here on the Hill. Suggestions from undergraduates will also be welcomed by the new club, which will foster progressive developments in the athletic policy at Hamilton.

Similar organizations are in existence at other colleges such as the Block S Club at Syracuse and the Varsity C Club at Colgate. Membership in the new association will be regarded as one of Hamilton's outstanding honors. All those who have earned major or minor letters will be eligible for membership in the club.

The association will be formally organized at a meeting soon in the Alpha Delta Phi Hall by the present lettermen. At this time a constitution will be drawn up, officers elected, and a design for an honorary key chosen.

A tea-dance will be held at the Psi U House, May 17. Dancing 5:30. Open to upper classmen. Music will be furnished by Billy Raux's Orchestra.

Pi Delt Poll On Hill Publications Shows Majority Are In Favor of Continuing Gaboon

Only half as many undergraduates approve the Royal Gaboon's contents as approve its appearance. Forty per cent of the students would have the Gaboon abolished, while 54 per cent would discontinue the "Mirror." These and other striking disclosures were revealed when Pi Delta Epsilon distributed a questionnaire on Hill publications to the undergraduates after Chapel last Wednesday morning.

Answered by 326 students, the questionnaire disclosed the fact that the majority thought there were too many Hill publications, 184 holding that belief and 129 being opposed to it. The "Hamilton Mirror," college tabloid, was looked upon with most disapproval, 176 voting for its discontinuance. The "Royal Gaboon" ran second in disfavor, 131 being for its abolition, while the Hamilton Literary Magazine trailed in third place, 78 students saying it should be discontinued.

Favor College Publicity Control

Opinion was almost equally divided on the question whether or not the Press Board should be managed by the college administration. The affirmative had a slight edge, however, 138 answering yes and 112 answering no. An interesting reason was given for voting in the affirmative by one man, who said that the Press Board should be controlled by the administration because, "their articles are terrible." Another student declared that all publications should be administered by the college.

In general, the trend of undergraduate sentiment was against abolishing the "Royal Gaboon." Of the 187 who did not want it discontinued, 157 wished it to continue as at present. The other 30 wanted it to appear less often, at intervals ranging from two to four times a year. Its total abolition was advocated by 131 students, of whom 107 voted to have its best features absorbed by other Hill publications, while 24 wanted humorous writing given up altogether.

Appearance Surpasses Content

That 192 men appproved the "Royal Gaboon's appearance, while only 91 were in favor of its contents, was an interesting fact brought out by the questionnaire. "Runs About the Town" seems to be considered by far the best feature of the "Gaboon," 274 votes being given it. Covers and exchange material lagged behind with 81 and 72 ballots, respectively. Jokes were most disliked, 126 declaring it the worst feature. Verse and humorous articles vied for second place as the worst feature, with 86 and 82 votes respectively.

Support accorded the "Gaboon" seems to be mostly sporadic. Only 53 acknowledged subscribing to it, while 67 do not support it at all. However, 72 undergraduates buy copies regularly ,and 143 occasionally. Replies to the question of sending the "Gaboon" through the mails to outside readers showed that 106 do and 213 do not. This, of course, might be true of any other Hill publication. Opinions on the number of times the "Gaboon" appears a year were conservative. Ballots of those who think it appears too seldom number 36, too often 82, and often enough 202.

Merger Suggestions Made

Suggestions for merging some of the Hill publications were few, only 63 answering this question. Of these, 24 wished to unite Life and the "Mirror," 14 the Gaboon and the Mirror, 10 the Gaboon and Lit., and six Life and Lit. Various other combinations were also suggested. There were 181 men who did not think any Hamilton publications should be merged.

She has, however, played both in Utica and New York as a soloist, and has been very enthusiastically received. She is considered to be one of the finest chamber music players and one of the most talented soloists before the American public today. She has studied music both in New York and in Europe.

The freshmen who will represent Hamilton are: Arthur Chambers, Karl Poppe, and R. Kerford Wilson. Joseph K. Strawbridge is the alternate. These men were chosen by competition from members of the freshman public speaking classes.

The subject to be debated is: Resolved, That the city of Utica should adopt the City Manager form of government. The men from Hamilton will have the negative side and will try to prove that the Uticans should continue as they are under their old form of government. This is one of the subjects which the Utica team has been debating during the spring.

Mr. Ginther, coach of the Utica team, states that as yet no judges have been found nor has a chairman been appointed. The Hamilton team is being trained by Professor Willard B. Marsh.

WHEN OPPORTUNITY COMES ALONG

Interest in things musical has grown with agreeable swiftness on the Hill during the past few years. The Whiting concerts and the recitals of the Musical Art Society have done much to stimulate a better appreciation of good music and a keener desire on the part of the undergraduates to hear it.

Situated as we are, high on a hilltop, we seldom get the chance to draw an Iturbi to the campus. This musical shortcoming, once a most unfortunate one, is no longer as acute as formerly. There is still room, however, for much improvement. Musical taste has been cultivated by the occasional recitals which the Musical Art Society presents to the college. But somehow these do not seem quite adequate. There is a strong desire to know and understand good music. The popularity of the music courses alone attests to this. There are those men who cannot manage to take a music course and who yet are eager to acquire a musical background, something which would better enable them to appreciate the recitals of the Musical Art Society.

The series of Wednesday evening lecture-recitals, which Professor Berrian Shute has inaugurated, offer an opportunity which music-lorn Hamilton has been waiting for. These highly diverting sessions offer the chance to gain an idea of the lives and works of the composers, to see their temperament reflected in their music, to come to know and understand and love it.

We hope that Professor Shute will feel able to make the series a regular weekly feature. Such an event might well become a delightful institution, doing much to raise music at Hamilton to its proper estate.

OUR SONG IS ALL OF THEE

There are some "old Spanish customs" which we are happy to see twilight-bound. The ancient banquet season, the class rushes, "Hell Week" and all that goes with it, are far better off in the limbo of Hamilton's past.

But there is one admirable custom which threatens to go along with the rest. There is one invaluable tradition which should never be abandoned, and that is the singing of college songs. Unfortunately, this practice is becoming a lost art on the Hill. Each year the singing grows weaker and weaker. Each year fewer and fewer men know the songs. Each year more and more freshmen neglect to master the words. The result is that when the organist in morning chapel plays a college song, the singing is pathetically feeble and dispirited.

There is scarcely a more powerful element in binding men together in loyalty and devotion to a college than its songs. There is something about the singing of them that arouses more spirit and feeling than almost anything else associated with student days. When men complain of the dying out of college spirit, the apathy of undergraduates toward their songs may explain the fact. In nothing else is there such opportunity for the entire college to unite in one definite thing, to share equally in one definite practice, to feel the thrill which comes from an expression of love for one's Alma Mater.

If the freshmen would learn the college songs, if the undergraduates would sing them, if the organist would play them more often, perhaps the songs would come to mean more to the college. As we often judge a nation by its music, so we often judge a college by its songs. We have the songs. What we need is to sing them.

NINE PREPARES FOR WEEK-END

Will Face Rochester Here And State Teachers At Albany

Hamilton's baseball team will finish up the third week of its 1930 campaign by entertaining Rochester at home Friday and visiting Albany on Saturday to play the New York State Teachers. The squad will work out during the week under Coach Mox Weber with some improvement anticipated in the batting line as well as a tightening up in fielding work.

Rochester will probably prove the more dangerous of the two week-end opponents, having handed the Continentals a 15-0 drubbing in their first game of the season at Rochester two weeks ago. The Flower City team is a well-balanced, powerful organization which has to date experienced a very successful season.

Less is known about the Albany team but from past performances the nine should be fairly strong and capable of giving Hamilton a hard game under any circumstances. The trip to Albany will be the next to the last trip the squad will make.

NEWMAN CLUB HOLDS LAST MEETING OF YEAR

Plans Made For Annual Communion Breakfast To Be Held Sunday

The meeting of the Newman Club held at the Chi Psi Lodge Thursday evening was the last one of the present college year. It was attended by Father Moore of the Clinton parish and by some 10 or 12 undergraduate members.

Plans were brought up for the annual Communion Breakfast of the Newman Club. The date for the event was set for May 18. It will be attended by the members of the club and by invited guests.

The speakers of the morning will be the Hon. M. J. Larkin and J. P. Guartieri, attorneys of Rome, N. Y.; Attorney Robert Burns, '10, of Clinton and Mr. Edward Coughlin, Bursar of the College. Officers for next year will be elected by the organization at the Communion Breakfast.

NOTES

A son, Alexander IV, was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Alison III, '24, of Bridgeport, Connecticut. Mr. Alison is a member of Pentagon and of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

CROWDS START MUSHBALL SERIES

Winner of Interfraternity Tournament to Receive Chi Psi Cup

Wednesday evening saw the first round of the Interfraternity Mushball tournament when six games were played on different parts of the campus. The contests were part of the elimination tournament which is being conducted in three leagues, formed according to geographical position on the Hill. The winners of these three leagues will play against each other for the cup offered by the Chi Psi fraternity.

On Wednesday night two games were played in each league. In the "A" league Sigma Phi defeated Theta Delta Chi by a score of 17-7. The Sigs held the upper hand most of the time and kept away from their friendly rivals quite easily. In the second game Alpha Delta Phi was beaten by Delta Upsilon, 12-5. Both teams were handicapped by loss of players, but the D. U. team proved itself quite superior.

In the "B" league Delta Kappa Epsilon walked over the Chi Psi team to the tune of 14-3. The closest game of the evening was the game between the Psi Upsilon team and that of the Emerson Literary Society, which the Psi Us won by a score of 16-12. The hardest fought game of the round was that played by Chi Beta Sigma and Lambda Xi Sigma. The final score was five to four in favor of the Chi Betes. The other two teams in the class "C" league ,the Neutrals and Lambda Chi Alpha, played a 14-3 game with the Neutrals on the high end of the score.

On Friday night Delta Upsilon played Sigma Phi and in a very close contested game, defeated them to the score of 4-2. On Saturday afternoon, the Alpha Delts trounced the Decagon Society by a score of 16-5.

1931 Hamiltonian

Wishes To Announce That Orders For the Hamiltonian May Be Placed By Filling Out and Returning This Coupon

Note: Recognizing the fact that a college exists largely because of the interest of certain alumni, the editor-in-chief of this year's HAMILTONIAN and I are making an effort to bring to you an accurate and unusually interesting account of undergraduate life at Hamilton for the year 1929-30. In the year-book you will find not only reviews of all the athletic, forensic, and musical events of the year, together with pictures of all the teams, classes, and groups, but you will also discover an unusual feature section. The feature editor, Davis, is following the general style of The NEW YORKER magazine, and is executing some extremely original ideas among which are "profiles" on some of our favorite professors, and pen and ink caricatures of other martyrs to the light of learning.

COPIES TO BE DELIVERED BY MAY 30th

Orders must be received before May 25 to insure a copy in reserve. Limited number being printed.

Severin Bourne
Business Manager, 1931 Hamiltonian
Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

You may send me one copy 1931 Hamiltonian, for which I agree to pay five dollars ($5.00) upon presentation of bill. My address is as follows:

CARPE DIEM

LEAD KINDLY LIGHT

Squires has been asking Cropsey questions and getting unsatisfactory results.

Squires: Are you thinking, Cropsey?

Cropsey: No, I'm just following you.

Will you take me to the zoo next week, Daddy?

FIRST RESULTS OF THE POLLS

At last some of the votes on the question of whom to give a sabbatical leave next year have been tallied.

Gigi.....(Will no longer be connected with this college so we'll not print his votes)

Laves.....(Carpe expects to have a course under him next year so will have to overlook that huge stack of ballots with his name)

Winnie, the Pooh.....(Didn't have enough adding machines to keep tally; and anyway, the ballot box was stuffed)

Bonham.....3 (Must be three men who will be here next year)

THE PRECOCITY OF PROFESSORS' CHILDREN

Immediately came back the reply: "Aw, come on; quit suping me."

TIME TO BE MENTIONED OR HASTY-HAISTY AND HIS ALARMING CHRONOMETER

In class, it seems, our good friend Hasty pulled from his pocket a somewhat elephantine time-piece, which began buzzing out its alarm. It was one of that kind. The students, of course, looked on somewhat surprised. And then the big blonde instructor of the gargle-language said: "I would have shown this to you before but I was afraid that I might break into print in Carpe if I did." Evidently it's all right now. There's no time like the present.

(Editor's Note: We apologize for having made Hasty-Haisty feel neglected. We hope this will appease his anger. Some day we'll devote an entire column to this great man. Watch for it).

What with Sam Ives in Greece and Zeb MacMillan in Turkey next year, Europe will soon become Hamiltonized. Perhaps Europe will do something for them, too. It may give them that cosmopolitan air which Harry Rodgers acquired during his residence in France.

PROFTRAIT NO. 4

Absence makes the heart grow fonder,
So Colonel Milledge over yonder
Even tho we are so few
Make us very fond of you.

We still remember your eye shade
And what a hit your great coat made—
We still remember that full beard
And those quizzes that we feared.

No more lectures with jokes, risque
All our humor has passed away ;
But we don't kick as long as you stay
On the other side and far away.

Now that Hamilton has its own Philatelists Club (well if you won't look it up in the dictionary I won't either) perhaps they can discover some logical reason why a letter with a special delivery stamp on it takes about two more days to arrive on the Hill than one with an ordinary two-cent stamp on it.

SUB-VARSITY TRACK MEN DEFEAT FRESHMEN

Varsity Runners Take All But Three First Places To Win, 71-38

Piling up nine firsts, six seconds, and seven thirds for a total of 71 points to the 38 garnered by the freshmen, the sub-varsity defeated the frosh in the college track meet held Wednesday afternoon. The freshmen scored three firsts, six seconds, and five thirds.

Kingsley and Ruland were the two freshmen to earn firsts against the stiff competition of the A .R. A. This is the Also Ran Association which consists of all men who have competed but failed to place in any track meet. Kingsley won the low hurdles and pole vault ,while Ruland took the 100-yard dash. The Also Rans took firsts in the remainder of the events.

The high hurdles and the javelin throw were the only events in which the freshmen didn't place.

According to Coach Weber, the freshman track team will be able to replace most of the men leaving this year through graduation. George Ruland is one of the best sprinters of the team, winning the 100-yard dash from Frazee, Corwin and Denman in 10.2. In low hurdles, there are George Kingsley and Frank Bellatty, winning first and third places, respectively, in the Freshman-A. R. A. meet.

In addition to being a hurdler, Kingsley is one of the best pole vaulters in college. He shared honors with Sprague in that event in the meet.

Poppe, Pearson and Bliss will strengthen the distance running division of the team, while some badly needed weight men will be available in the shape of DeSormo, Ayres and Joslin, in the shot put and discus.

ULMER TO TEACH IN CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Bernhard Ulmer, '29, has been appointed to the German department of the Agricultural College of Connecticut, where he intends to take up his new work with the beginning of the fall term.

Mr. Ulmer has been engaged in graduate work at Harvard during the past year, studying the historical development of the German language.

COLLEGIATE SPORT CHATTER

BY EDWARD V. GROSS, '32

Yielding only one first place to Rochester Saturday, the track team ably avenged the 15-0 shut-out handed the baseball team at Rochester in the opening game of the season. What it needs now is a team to take revenge on Clarkson and St. Lawrence.

The substitution of the Mass. Aggies for Haverford on the baseball schedule this year deprives the college of what might be an interesting exhibition of pitching by Al Supplee, Haverford twirler. On the mound against Swarthmore Supplee displayed a peculiar combination of ineffectiveness and air-tight pitching. He fanned 13 of the opposing batters, but yielded 11 hits to lose the game, 9-3.

After a year's trial, Boston University has voted to discontinue the no-captaincy plan which calls for the election of an honorary leader in each sport at the end of the season.

At Boston U., student dissatisfaction with fraternity politics in captaincy elections precipitated the adoption of the plan, and student dissatisfaction with the plan itself caused its discontinuance.

Nebraska athletes apparently are adept pupils. At the Drake relays recently, two Nebraska broad jumpers signified their desire to enter the hop, step and jump a few minutes before the event startd. The other contestants promptly gathered around and explained the principle of the thing to the two novices. The Nebraska men then proceeded to win third and fifth places for their Alma Mater and defeat the majority of their instructors.

Notice To Fencers

"The champion beer-drinker in Heidelburg University, Germany is an American from Kentucky. The best duelist is from Kansas."

—From the Rochester "Campus."

A number of track men have recently been pledged to the A. R. A., which ,translated, reads the Also Ran Association. Its membership consists of those who have been in intercollegiate competition this season but have failed to place. While there may be a certain amount of humor attached to the organization, the greater distinction seems to lie in a graceful withdrawal at the earliest possible moment.

GOLFERS TO MEET SYRACUSE FRIDAY

Will Try To Repeat Victory of Last Week Over Salt City Team

Syracuse University's golf team will be entertained here on Friday afternoon by the Hamilton golfers. The match will be a return affair to one played in Syracuse on the Drumlins course last week on Tuesday and won by Hamilton, 5 to 1. The Buff and Blue golfers should repeat their decisive victory of the first meeting, since they are far better acquainted with the home course than with the difficult Drumlins layout.

Leading the Syracuse squad is George Armstrong, who was a mainstay on the crack basketball team at Syracuse during the past season.

The Hamilton team, composed of Frank Mead, Jim Bannerman, Bud Miller and George Decker, has been putting in much time in practice during the past few weeks.

HILL TENNIS TEAM TRIUMPHS OVER SYRACUSE AND UNION

Courtmen Win Out In Hard Struggle With Union Players

McGREGOR WINS MATCHES

Colgate Gives Hill Only Defeat In Match At Hamilton

The first week of the tennis season closed Saturday with the Hill varsity having won two victories and suffered one defeat. Syracuse and Union were humbled on the home courts by the local racquet wielders who only bowed to Colgate at Hamilton.

Hard-fought every step of the way, the tennis match with Union on Saturday ended in a victory for Hamilton. It would be hard to conceive of two more evenly matched teams. With a score of four matches to four, the result of the day depended on the doubles match of Kavakos and Boeve, Hamilton, against Hotaling and Bennett, Union. After a hard three-set battle Hamilton came out victorious 6-4, 6-8, and 6-2.

Six singles and three doubles teams saw action. The singles matches were split. The doubles matches decided the meet. McGregor, number one man of the Buff and Blue, handily defeated Hotaling 6-4, 6-3. It was the third singles victory in intercollegiate competition for the Hamilton star.

Defeated at Colgate

Boeve, number two, turned in a victory over Brooke, 6-1, 14-12; Fox, number five, defeated Shirtenlieb, 2-6, 6-1, 6-3. Winning for Union in singles were Cummings with a 6-2, 6-3 victory over Kavakos, Bennett with a 7-5, 6-4 win over West, and Schautz with a 6-1, 6-8, 7-5 win over Kelsey, number four for Hamilton. In the doubles, McGregor and Kelsey defeated Brooke and Schautz 6-2, 6-3. Fox and Harwood lost to Shirenlieb and Cummings 6-4, 6-2,

Journeying to Colgate on Friday the tennis team was defeated five matches to one. McGregor, number one man, won the only point for the Hamiltonians in turning in a splendid victory over Hoffheim the Colgate star, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4. Four singles and two doubles matches were played.

Trim Syracues

Kent, downed Boeve 6-3, 6-3. Woodruff beat Kavakos 6-0, 6-3. Clifford won over Kelsey 6-3, 6-2. Hoffheim and Kent downed McGregor and Kelsey 6-3, 6-4. Kelsey showed up well in this match. Woodruff and Clifford trounced Boeve and Kavakos 6-3, 6-1.

Starting the season in good style the tennis team defeated Syracuse here 4-2, last Tuesday. A strong wind hindered the play of both teams. McGregor, the best player that Hamilton has had for several years, defeated L. Dritz 7-5, 5-7,, 6-4.

Boeve downed Burns 7-5, 6-1. S. Dritz won a hard battle from Kavakos 7-5, 7-5. Siarrusso defeated Best 6-2, 7-5.

Later McGregor paired with Best to conquer the Dritz brothers 3-6, 7-5, 6-0. Boeve and Kavakos playing together for the second year as a doubles team were extended to beat Burns and Siarrusso 3-6, 6-4, 6-1.

CONFERENCE MEET TO BE RUN HERE SATURDAY

year, while the upstater has beaten the Buff and Blue star twice this year, and the spirit of rivalry between the two is keen. Ford, who is in much better condition than at their first meeting of the year, will make a strong bid to avenge his defeat.

Pritchard is expected to meet some opposition from Zscheigner of Alfred in the mile but should have things much his own way in the two-mile. Zscheigner, who runs the 880 in 1 minute and 57 seconds, is considered as the outstanding contender in that event.

With some uncertainty as to whether or not Steele of Alfred will run, Hamilton's chances in the 440-yard dash appear bright. Ford should have no trouble in the hurdles.

In the field events, the Continentals should hold their own, especially in both jumps and in the pole vault.

Four men representing each team will compete in every event. Preliminaries in the 100 and 220-yard dashes and in the low hurdles will be held at 10:30 in the morning. The finals start at 2:30 in the afternoon. Admission to outsiders will be 50c, but faculty and students will be admitted free.

MADRIGAL CHOIR GIVES ORATORIO

Group Under Shute Presents Work of Haydn At Uptown Theater

Haydn's oratorio, "The Creation," was presented Wednesday evening by the Madrigal Choir of Utica and the new Utica Festival Orchestra, under the direction of Professor Berrian R. Shute ,in the Uptown Theater, Utica, before an appreciative audience. Professor Shute received much praise for his development and training of the choir and orchestra.

Two faculty members and two undergraduates took part in the presentation. Professor Willard B. Marsh was in the bass section of the choir, while in the orchestra, Professor A. P. Saunders played the viola, William H. Corwin, '33, the 'cello and Richard J. Redmond, '33, the trumpet. Both the choir and the orchestra are composed of Uticans.

The audience expressed growing enthusiasm as the program advanced, and especially after the climaxes of the first and second parts. The choir was at its best in the rendition of the more massive culminating passages of the composition.

The oratorio began with an orchestra prelude, "Representation of Chaos." Roger Kinne, bass, then took up the theme in the recitative, "In the Beginning God Created the Heaven and the Earth," after which the choir joined. The next recitative was sung by Arthur O'Hanlon, tenor, followed by a portion for the choir.

The recitative of the third soloist, Doris Nash Wortmann, soprano, was followed by a section sung by the choir. Pauses followed these groupings which gave the audience its opportunity to respond. The recitatives were accompanied by George Wald at the organ, and where an aria or choral part followed ,the orchestra was the accompaniment.

LIFE VALUES ARE TREATED BY BELL

Emphasizes Importance of Inner Life Over "Mere Externalities"

Speaking in the College Chapel on Sunday, Warden Bernard Iddings Bell of St. Stephens College said: "It has never been possible for thinking men and women to make life anything but a lot of nonsense, if we live for living's sake. Unless we live for something besides mere externalities, our existence can only be futile."

He went on to say that the things that we live for these days have no survival value. "What are the things for which we live — money, power, prestige, children, reputation. These have no survival value. Most people are forgotten before their bones are rotted. But it is better to stay forgotten than to be dug up and ridiculed by some John Erskine. There are worse fates than oblivion.

"Life is always ahead of us. When we are in college we are always saying that we are looking to the life that is ahead. That is where the adventure and the ultimate satisfaction is, and we endure this college life, this life of preparation, in order to be ready for that realization of the things for which we have been waiting."

Dr. Bell declared that these anticipations are mere shades of the actual facts. "Can we gain satisfaction from money. There are no pockets in a shroud. Can we gain comfort from our sons and daughters? I don't think so." People today are dreamers. Our study goes back to look for origins while we disregard destinies. Our individual thought goes forward to a Utopia and yet it seems that we never reach that perfect life. There is a time when we seem to be approaching the standard of our dreams and then we die."

"The only life that is worth anything, and the only life that will go on is the life of the soul." The average undergraduate knows very little about the soul and in fact about religion. He, too, is engaged in looking for facts.

In conclusion, Dr. Bell said that there are four great things to look for in life. "The things that fill the soul of man are Truth, Beauty, Love and Religion. These are the things to seek for and the only things that are worth while in life."

... off the tee it's DISTANCE!

...in a cigarette it's TASTE!

"PROMISES FILL no sack"... it is not words, but taste, that makes you enjoy a cigarette.
But you're entitled to all the fragrance and flavor that fine tobaccos can give; don't be content with less. You can expect better taste, richer aroma, from Chesterfields — because in making them, we put taste first—
"TASTE above everything"
